Jean Cameron

Death Notice

CAMERON, Lorena Jean, RN - at University Hospital on Monday, September 19, 2016, age 85. Beloved wife of James Cameron for 60 years. Dear mother of Scott Cameron, Christine Cameron, Heather Durnin and her husband Mike, and Allison O'Connor and partner David Stickland. Loving grandmother of Jennifer, Laura, and David Cameron, Marshall and Ethan Durnin and Cameron O'Connor. Great grandmother of Leah and Avery Cameron. Jean will also be sadly missed by Monica Cameron. Predeceased by her parents Ethel and Marshall Fisher and her sister Elizabeth Guy. Jean was a descendant of Valentine Fischer who immigrated from Germany. Jean's family lived on a family farm outside of Forest. Jean was very proud of her rural roots. In 1951 Jean enrolled in the St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing, London, and graduated in 1954. Jean was Head Nurse in the Emergency Department at St. Joseph's Hospital. Later Jean worked closely with Dr. Douglas Manners for many years. She retired from Nursing when Dr. Manners retired. Jean enjoyed curling at the Ivanhoe Curling Club, furniture refinishing and sewing. Visitation on Wednesday from 2-4 pm and 7-9 pm at Harris Funeral Home, 220 St. James St. at Richmond where the funeral service will be conducted on Thursday, September 22 at 11:30 am by Rev. Dr. Sheila Macgregor. Interment Beechwood Cemetery, Forest. Memorial contributions to St. Joseph's Health Care Foundation or Siloam United Church Memorial Fund would be appreciated.
