

Clemens - It is with great sadness that the family announces the passing of John "Jack" Garfield Clemens at the age of 83 on May 31, 2003. Loving husband and best friend of Ruth (McLellan) Clemens R.N. Dearest father of Mark (Cindy) Clemens, Lambton Shores, Maribeth Clemens-Christink, London, Marni (Doug) Springer, London and Susan (David) Smolensky, Houston Texas. Caring example and loving grandfather of Sharalee, Amanda, Jacob, Lindsay, Steven, Jonathan, Benjamin, Michael, Meghan and Kayla. Brother of Robert L., Ingersoll and Betty Jamieson, Forest. Predeceased by sister Rosemary Langof and brother Leslie. Jack inspired everyone that knew and loved him. His life was centered around his family and his faith in God. He knew what was important in life and his actions were an expression of these beliefs. Jack was a generous, kind and giving husband and father. As a son and brother he was loyal, supportive and loving. As an uncle and a grandfather he was full of joy and encouragement. As a mentor, he had the unique ability to share wondrous stories, thought-provoking poems and insightful biblical quotes that always challenged those who listened to live to a higher standard. Jack lived a long full life that demonstrated his commitment to unselfishness, propriety and moral uprightness. He was the embodiment of all that is good and right in this world. He had a zest for life, for his family, for his farm and for his church. He helped us experience growth, life and joy. Our lives will continue but we are significantly diminished by the loss. He is no longer with us, however in the spring when the flowers blossom and the leaves burst forth on the trees, or in the winter when we gaze at the glistening snow on the fields from the night before, we will know he is still with us and the world will seem right. We will embrace life as he did and with us in the his gentle spirit. Psalm 91:1 "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadows of the Almighty" Rested at the Ronn E. Dodge Funeral Home "McFarlane Chapel" 9 James St. S. (Forest) Lambton Shores where private family service was conducted on Sunday June 1, 2003 with Pastor Mark Isaac and Ron Mathieson. Interment Beechwood Cemetery. Donations appreciated to V.O.N. Canadian Cancer or "Focus On The Family Canada" PO Box 9800, Stn. Terminal, Vancouver, B.C. V6B 4G3 (cheques only received at the Funeral Home).

A Memorial Tree will be planted in memory of "Jack" by the Dodge Family.
