

Adriana "Oma" Thibeault
1925-2014

Adriana Thibeault, lovingly referred to as Oma, finished her race on April 2nd, 2014. Oma was born in 1925 in Holland, coming later to Canada as a war bride in 1946. Despite facing many challenges, she kept the faith. Now, she is enjoying face-to-face communion with her Savior and LORD, Jesus-Christ. Her life was devoted to sharing and encouraging others to find their own intimacy with God.

You Raise Me Up, a song made famous by Josh Groban, was more than just a beautiful song to Oma. It reflected the unique call on her life and later inspired to learn an interpretive worship dance that she performed on mother's day. She loved to worship through movement, music as well as making many handmade crafts.

Oma and her husband, Christian, were blessed with one son, Yvon who is married to Nicole, and later, one grandson, Carl who is engaged to Stacey. She will be missed by her foster-son Richard and his spouse Marlene and many more. Oma's sister, Antonia, currently still lives in Holland with her many family members. Oma is loved and remembered by her sister-in-laws, brother-in-laws, nephews, and nieces. Adriana treasured all members of her family.

Last but not least, her beloved spiritual and international sons and daughters, Evangelist Jim and Carla Barbarossa, the founders of Step-by-Step Ministry, Real Life Story Book, and Shofar Man International Ministry, Indiana, USA; Riven and wife Pastor Doris Sam, Indianapolis, USA; Pastor William and Minister Valerie Ducombe, Bahamas; Pastor Gary Bitely, USA; Pastor Zeny Bitely, Phillipines; Missionary Hanna Handojo, Indonesia; Kunle, Lola, Tiffany and Tomiwa of Nigeria.

As in accordance with Oma's wishes, there will be a celebration of thanks for her 89 years of life. This celebration will be held at Oromocto Baptist Church in New Brunswick, Canada on April 12th, 2014, at 3:00 pm (Atlantic Time). All are welcome to celebrate and reflect on her life immediately following the service in the church where coffee and tea will be served.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making a donation toward the cost of interment in Ontario, where her late husband is already resting. Knowing they will be side by side at the last trumpet sound announcing the return of the Lord of Lords Jesus Christ. Donations can be made to the family directly or through the Oromocto Funeral Home, 108 Winnebago Street, Oromocto, NB. 357-5100. www.oromoctofh.com

"Thank you for supporting my family with your prayers during my stay at the hospital, and for all of your gifts of love: cards, flowers, food and visits. I rejoice knowing that I did all that was required of me. Be blessed, my friends, and be a blessing. He is so worthy to receive thanks for all he did in my life. He's always near.

Thank you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

~ Adriana "Oma" Thibeault