

THOMAS, Stewart Douglas - passed away peacefully at Stanford Place Care Home in Parksville June 22, 2015. Stewart is survived by his loving daughter Susan and husband Tom of Comox, niece Cynthia (John) Cook of Lambton Shores, and nephew Doug (Cathy) of Watertown. He was predeceased by his wife Marguerite (Douglas), sister Aileen (Tom Brown), brother Ivan (Betty) and parents Hugh and Irene. Stuart was born in January 1922 and grew up on a farm on the shores of Lake Huron close to land settled by his Welsh ancestors. He was proud to serve with the RCAF in England during WWII as a Radar Mechanic. Stewart spent his career in electronics industries and he retired from Mallory Components, Woodstock as a Quality Control Manager in 1987. The family lived in Toronto, Stratford, Woodstock, Beamsville, Cranbrook and Comox, BC. He had diverse hobbies including travel, painting and photography, collecting stamps, fishing, golf, genealogy, gardening and building furniture, boats and 2 cottages. Stewart lived a long and healthy life and will be missed as an elder of the Thomas family. There will be no service by request. If desired, donations to a charity of your choice. 12547718