

DAVID E. DOUGLAS

David Edward Douglas, 69, of 1950 Thelma Avenue, Bright's Grove, died today in Sarnia General Hospital.

He was born in Sombra township and resided at Bright's Grove for the past 13 years. He was a pensioner of Imperial Oil.

Surviving are his widow the former Jennie Myrtle Abrams; three daughters, Mrs. William (Mary) Pasquan and Mrs. William (Velma) Skam, both Sarnia and Mrs. (Ora) Baxter, Arkona; four sons, Edward, Corunna; Ronald, Toronto and Harold and Gerald, Sarnia; 18 grandchildren; one great grandson; three brothers, Robert and George, Sombra township and James, Port Lambton and a sister, Mrs. Mary Stamm, Winnipeg.

He was predeceased by a daughter, Mrs. Ross (Anna May) Wilcocks; a son, Keith; a brother and four sisters.

DAVID EDWARD DOUGLAS

Funeral service for David Edward Douglas was held Monday from D. J. Robb Funeral Home with Rev. W. Rodger, of Arkona United Church officiating. Burial was in Arkona Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Bud Dunford, Leighton Vickers, Glen Clarke, Orvie Burkhart, Gordon Brooks and Bill McKibbin.

Honorary pallbearers were Ronald Douglas Jr., Harry Douglas, Paul Douglas and Steven Pasquan.

Mr. Douglas, husband of the former Jennie M. Abrams, of 1950 Thelma, Brights Grove, died Saturday, in Sarnia General Hospital.

Jan 17 - 1970