

WILLIAM JAMIESON DIES SUDDENLY

It came as a shock to citizens of the vicinity when it became known last Friday that William Jamieson had died suddenly from acute indigestion while at his work.

Deceased was in his 62nd year and was a highly respected and widely known resident of McGillivray Township. He was born at Warwick and had farmed in Adelaide, Bosanquet and McGillivray. In religion he was a member of the Free Methodist Church and in politics a Liberal. To mourn his loss, he leaves his wife, one son ^{HECTOR} at home and two grandchildren. MARY (GERALD ADDISON) AND MAURICE

The funeral took place on Sunday, November 1, 1931, Rev. George Stevens being in charge of the service. The pallbearers were Messrs. Albert Hawkins, Reg. Hawkins, R. Jamieson, G. Jamieson, S. Jamieson and J. Jamieson.

Attending the funeral were friends and relatives from Detroit, Kitchener, London, California, Strathroy, Forest, Sarnia and Blythe.

Interment took place in Arkona cemetery.

Born 1869

JAMIESON

MAP- 2

R- 12

L- 9

JAMIESON— William

B. Dec. 6, 1869—Oct. 31, 1931

His wife Annie (Faust)

B. Feb. 12, 1864—Dec. 2, 1953

The little boy is their grandson Maurice .

In this plot there is two babies buried

Infant—William, the son of William and Annie in the early 1890's

Son Maurice, he drowned in the duck dish when he was 2 years old. He died around the time of the infant son.

Twin sister to Annie—Minnie Faust was buried in this plot as well. She was born in McGillivray Twp.