

MRS. ANNIE JAMIESON

JAMIESON, Annie--Born in McGillivray Township, December 2, 1864, to Mr. and Mrs. John Faust. Passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital, London, February 12, 1953.

She leaves to mourn: one son, Hector, of Parkhill, and a daughter, Mrs. George Long (Lena) of Gravenhurst; two brothers, John of Parkhill and William of Thedford; five grandchildren and five great grandchildren. Her husband, William, predeceased her October 30, 1931.

Sister Jamieson was converted in a meeting held in the Klondike about fifty years ago. Five years later, she united with the church at Thedford, where she attended faithfully as long as she was able. The funeral service was conducted from the M. Box and Son Funeral Home, Parkhill, by the writer. Interment in Arkona Cemetery.

J. W. FLETCHER

JAMIESON

MAP- 2

R- 12

L- 9

JAMIESON— William

B. Dec. 6, 1869—Oct. 31, 1931

His wife Annie (Faust)

B. Feb. 12, 1864—Dec. 2, 1953

The little boy is their grandson Maurice .

In this plot there is two babies buried

Infant—William, the son of William and Annie in the early 1890's

Son Maurice, he drowned in the duck dish when he was 2 years old. He died around the time of the infant son.

Twin sister to Annie—Minnie Faust was buried in this plot as well. She was born in McGillivray Twp.