ELIZABETH DAVIE WILCOCKS

Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas & Elizabeth (Chapel) Davie/Davey of North Devon, England.

She married Samuel Isaac Wilcocks, son of David and Annie (Rowe) Wilcocks, in North Devon, England. Samuel, Elizabeth and their 2 sons, Samuel John and David immigrated to Canada in 1849. They settled near Woodstock, Ontario for a couple of years prior to moving to Lambton County. Eight more children were born to the couple: George, Joseph, Francis, Septemus, Antonius, Bessie and a child who died as an infant.

Samuel Isaac Wilcocks died on Nov. 12, 1901 and at the time of biography in 1906, Elizabeth Davie Wilcocks was reported to have been 84 years old, which presents a slight discrepancy between the book and the death announcement.

The biographer writes (p. 347), "Time has touched her (Elizabeth) lightly. Her senses are alert, her faculties keen, and she is very active physically!

She is a devoted mother and a true Christian woman and attends the Baptist Church."
