Obituary for Dorothy Silver

Dorothy Jean Silver, formerly of Arkona, on Monday, August 14th in her 89th year at Strathroy Middlesex General Hospital went home to be with her Lord.

Sister of Thelma & Jack Hudson, Arthur & Gayle Silver, David (2009) & Carol Silver and Murray Silver (2016).

Dorothy will be missed by numerous nephews and nieces, as well as the many, many friends and those whose lives she has impacted over the years, both family and community.

Dorothy was well known for her smile and encouraging words. She was an original “Golden Girl” from Arkona. Leona Barber, Jean Eastman and Dorothy Silver were life-long friends, known for their work and influence in the community. Dorothy’s church family was paramount in her strong faith, involved in both her local Pentecostal and Baptist churches.

A visitation will take place at Gilpin Funeral Chapel in Forest on Thursday, August 17th from 4pm-8pm, with a service conducted on Friday, August 18th at 1pm with Reverend Dave Adams and Pastor Rob Spicer officiating. Interment to take place at the Arkona Cemetery.

Memorial donations in Dorothy’s name would be appreciated toward the Arkona Baptist Church or the Strathroy Middlesex General Hospital Foundation.
