

Ella Plumb

Funeral services were held at Denning Brothers Funeral Home on Tuesday, February 8, for Ella Plumb, wife of the late Gordon Plumb. She died at the age of 68 after a lengthy illness. Reverend James Perrie officiated.

She died at Strathroy Middlesex General Hospital on February 6, after living most of her life at R.R. 3 Kerwood.

She is survived by four sons: Raymond and Marwood of Bright's Grove, Lyle of Sarnia, Gerald of R.R. 3 Kerwood, three daughters, Mrs. Ralph (Marjorie) Arrand of R.R. 3 Kerwood, Mrs. Ed. (Shirley) Hotham of London, and Mrs. Orland (Phylliss) Nichols of Adelaide Village, two brothers, Mitchell McAdam of Clinton, Chester McAdam of West Williams, and two sisters, Mrs. Leona McKellar of London and Mrs. Ray (Violet) Bell of Forest.

Pallbearers in attendance were Byron Jackson, Limon Ireland, Donald McKenzie, Scott Bice, Archie Pedden and Frank Verheyen.

Interment was in Arkona Cemetery.