

Ivan Parker

Major Ivan M. Parker of Warwick Township died on July 27, 1976.

Mr. Parker was a former well known breeder of Shorthorn Cattle and along with his son Mac owned and operated Sunnyhill M. Farms. Parker's Grocery and Gas Station is well-known in this area and it has been in operation for 40 years.

Major Parker was a member of the 48th Battery in World War II. He was an elder of Zion and Watford United Church, a member of Peabody Lodge No. 99 of Watford Independent Order of Oddfellows and also a member of Warwick Central School Board.

Ivan was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Parker and is survived by his wife, formerly Evelyn Matthews, a son Mac, and daughters Mrs. John Sproule of Sarnia and Dorothy at home, two granddaughters Niola and Kata, two brothers George of Sarnia and Russell of Warwick Township.

Reverend D. Hawkins of Watford United Church officiated at the funeral service on Friday afternoon at Harper Funeral Home. Rock of Ages was accompanied by Mrs. Audrey Beattie at the piano.

Pallbearers included: George Matthews, Bill Matthews, Wayne Moffatt, Alfons Couwenberg, Jim Watson and John Pedden.

Flowerbearers were Ivan Morgan, Eric Hargreaves, Alex Currie and Keith Howden.

Interment was in Arkona Cemetery.
